

INTERNATIONAL TRAIN-THE-TRAINER PROGRAM

Certification Training

Assessing the Potentially Dangerous Student (PDS)

Schools continue to struggle with students making verbal threats while they ask themselves, "Could this be a PDS or just a Prankster?" and "What can I do?"

School officials have heard their teachers make one of these statements, or perhaps they find themselves saying one.

- "Boys will be boys."
- "That child is just not right!"
- "He is just a little prankster."
- "Why didn't anyone see it coming?"
- "I never thought it would happen here."
- "This student's a time bomb waiting to go off!"

Have you ever thought that it would be nice to have a way to actually weigh the things you see and hear; to know if a student is just a prankster, a student in need of help, or a PDS?

Good News! There is a way and you can bring it to your school or organization.

This training Certifies attendees in the use of the Keys To Safer Schools.com Assessment Instrument. Schools are awarded a "License to Reproduce" the Instrument for their staff who attend. The training is based on:

- National Level research by the:
 - Department of Education,
 - Office of Juvenile Justice,
 - FBI, Secret Service & others.

It looks at "Why" we miss these students and "What" we can do to identify them. There is an emphasis on identification and assessment of early warning signs in a Potentially Dangerous Students (PDS). It helps School Officials determine a possible PDS from just a PRANKSTER by reading a score on an assessment instrument. Then use the Decision Tree to determine the Next Step. It provides schools a Risk/Threat Assessment Team Model as outlined in the Columbine Review Commission Report. It requires minimum time to put in place and effectively identifies students who may need help immediately. Schools should not stop with training Assessment Teams but should take the next step and provide an in-service for ALL staff in Recognition of Early Warning Signs.

Announcing a International Training Program

Train-the-Trainers: Certification Training Assessing the Potentially Dangerous Student (PDS)

Currently Keys has required their Mental Health Violence Prevention Experts to conduct this one-of-a-kind training. Due to the increasing demand on Keys staff to train individuals in the Assessing of the PDS, Keys is offering this two-day Train-the-trainer event to selected individuals. Those individuals will become Trainers in this dynamic program which features Keys Internationally used and highly unique Assessment Instrument. Additionally, once a person is trained as a trainer, that individual may be eligible to become a Trainer in the Keys Associate Program. Consider the possibility of expanding your professional career track while serving your school/organization.

OBJECTIVE: This training will equip the graduates with the skills to Assess students in need of immediate help using the Keys To Safer Schools.com Assessment Instrument and additionally it will provide the skills for certifying others to do the same.

DATES: Go to Keys Calendar for up-coming trainings
<http://keystosaferschools.com/calendar3.htm>

COST: Early Registration Cost - $225

To learn more about this training, visit the Keys To Safer Schools.com website at: http://keystosaferschools.com/Train-the-Trainer_PDS.htm or call Keys toll free at 1-800-504-7355.

"Have you ever wondered if the student you spoke with is capable of committing a violent act as some have? We in our district decided almost 6 years ago to be proactive in this regard and initiated this program to aid us in identifying potentially dangerous students and differentiating between them and the more common pranksters. After training a small cadre of staff members 6 years ago in the use of this Internationally used Assessment Instrument, we now want to take the next step and certify our own staff Trainers to conduct this essential training.

We have found this Assessment Program to be very effective and believe that your school will benefit from it as well."
